

NJFOA SHORE CHAPTER EXECUTIVE COUNCIL MEETING
January 22nd, 2022

Location: Poricy Park Nature Center (Middletown, NJ)

Present: Bill Van Schoick, Jim Foligno, Chris Schalnat, Andrew Rosenbloom, Bill Surdovel, Brian Fyfe, Mike Kilmurray, Javier Campos, Kyle Moberg, Steve Ramseur

Absent: Amdur

Meeting called to order by President Van Schoick at 11:04 AM.

President Van Schoick began by discussing the shortage of officials in the chapter to man 17 crews and preparation of field readiness of cadets. Van Schoick also discussed how crews thought of as strong crews are continuing to get stronger by purging members from other crews and his desire for more equity across the crews.

Van Schoick recommended Dick Amdur as Board attorney, unanimously approved.

Van Schoick informed members Kevin Fleming would not be reappointed as cadet supervisor and a new cadet supervisor will be named in the near future.

Foligno received a preliminary schedule of games and has asked the Shore Conference to limit the total number of games on Fridays to 15 games to ensure proper coverage. The Shore Conference has not released official game dates yet but has received and acknowledged the request.

Discussion briefly ensued on playoff and regular season assignments and evaluations, the board as whole felt as though assignments need to be addressed. Further discussion tabled for a future meeting.

Fyfe brought up mentoring program and potential changes to mentoring and cadet program. The board discussed developing a sub-varsity and chain game requirement for cadets to be developed in policy.

Discussion shifted to crew change requests and development of crews. Several members discussed issues with referees contacting cadets early in the season.

Crew change requests were discussed at length. There were multiple open referee positions which needed to be filled due to retirement, injuries and new positions. The board approved all requests with the exception of one which was tabled pending further details. Rosenbloom to inform all white hats who made requests.

Motion to adjourn at 1:28 PM, unanimously approved.

Respectfully submitted,

Andrew Rosenbloom
2nd Vice President/Secretary
